

Artistic Director
Daniel Hughes

April 26, 2004

President
Razmik Davoudian

Vice-president
Simon Lau

Secretary
Brett Garrett

Treasurer
Charles Ryan

At-large
Eric Chong
Dan England
Steve Proo
Jake Shoemaker

One World, One Voice: A joint concert presented by the Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus and the Rainbow Women's Chorus at 8pm on June 4 & 5, 2004 at the Le Petit Trianon in San Jose, CA. This performance features music that speaks to the heart of our Gay and Lesbian community and as inhabitants of this wonderful world. Selections include "Down in the Valley", "All That Jazz", and "Everything Possible". Tickets are $20 and are available at the door, by calling (408) 850-1605, online at www.svgmc.org, or from a chorus member. The last two concerts of SVGMC have sold out so be sure to get your tickets early.

As a non-profit organization, SVGMC relies on donations made by individuals and corporations in order to continue our community outreach. To learn more about donating to the chorus, please go to <http://svgmc.org/donate>

For more information about the chorus, please visit our web site at svgmc.org

Sincerely,
Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus

The Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus is based in San Jose, California, and is a member of the Gay and Lesbian Association of Choruses, Inc. (GALA). SVGMC is a diverse group dedicated to achieving excellence in music and maintaining a high sense of personal and collective pride. Our mission is to promote fellowship within the Silicon Valley gay and lesbian communities and beyond, and through our music, gain the respect and esteem of all people.

P.O. Box 1207 ■ San Jose ■ CA 95108 ■ (408) 850-1605

svgmc.org ■ office@svgmc.org

Silicon Valley Gay Men's Chorus is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization